

Pyramids in Paris

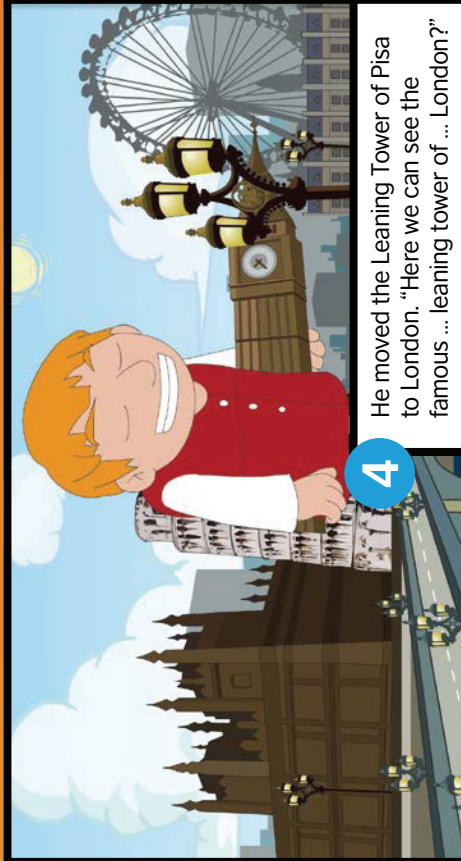

.....
Daily Bugle
LANDMARKS MOVED
'Giant suspected!'

1 Something very strange happened last month. A naughty, young giant moved all the world's famous landmarks.

2 People around the world were very confused.

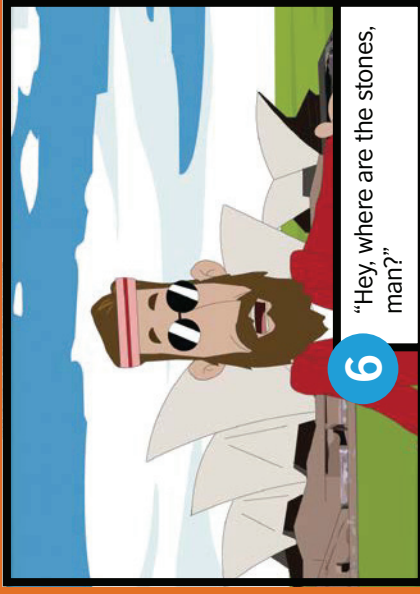

3 He put the Pyramids in Paris. "And on your left the ... pyramids?"

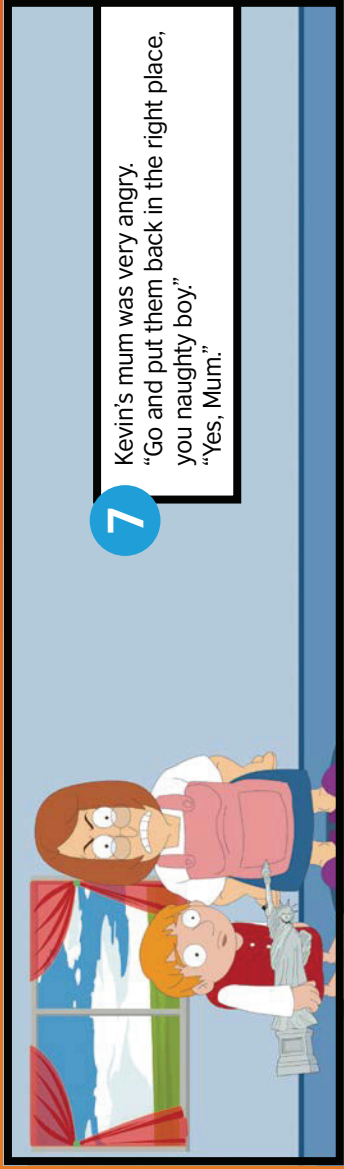

4 He moved the Leaning Tower of Pisa to London. "Here we can see the famous ... leaning tower of ... London?"

5 He swapped the Sydney Opera House with Stonehenge.

6 "Hey, where are the stones, man?"

7 Kevin's mum was very angry. "Go and put them back in the right place, you naughty boy."
 "Yes, Mum."

8 So don't worry. If you go to London, Cairo, Pisa or Paris today, you'll see all the landmarks in their correct place.

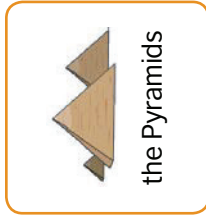

Pyramids in Paris

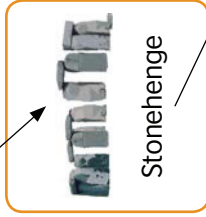

1. Match them up!

Where did the landmarks come from? Where did the naughty giant put them? Match the landmarks with the places.

Wiltshire, England Giza, Egypt Sydney, Australia Rome, Italy

the Pyramids

Stonehenge

Leaning Tower of Pisa

Sydney Opera House

London, England Wiltshire, England Paris, France Sydney, Australia

2. Write and draw!

What landmark would you like the giant to move to your town? Why? Write about it and draw a picture.

Blank area for writing and drawing.

Activity 1

The Pyramids moved from Giza, Egypt to Paris, France.
Stonehenge moved from Wiltshire, England to Sydney, Australia.

The Leaning Tower of Pisa moved from Pisa, Italy to London, England.
Sydney Opera House moved from Sydney, Australia to Wiltshire, England.